

COMMERCIAL LAW

1. Historical development of Commercial law.
2. Subject-matter and method of regulation of Commercial law.
3. Persons of Commercial law. Types of merchants.
4. Commercial registration. Commercial books.
5. Merchant's legal name.
6. Commercial enterprise.
7. Transactions, having as their object the commercial enterprise.
8. Branch.
9. Commercial agency – notion.
10. Dependent commercial agency.
11. Independent commercial agency.
12. Commercial companies – notion.
13. General partnership.
14. Limited partnership.
15. Limited liability company – notion, establishment, articles of association.
16. Limited liability company – capital, shares, partners rights and obligations, management, termination.
17. Joint-stock company – notion, capital, shares.
18. Joint-stock company – establishment, shareholders rights and obligations.
19. Joint-stock company – change of registered capital, debentures.
20. Joint-stock company – management, termination.
21. Transformation of commercial companies.
22. Liquidation of commercial companies.
23. Consortium and holding company.
24. Commercial transactions.
25. Conclusion and execution of commercial transactions.
26. Non-performance and responsibility for non-performance of commercial transactions.
27. Commercial security.
28. Sale contract.
29. Commission merchant contract and forwarding contract.
30. Contract of carriage.
31. Insurance contract.
32. Bill of exchange and promissory note.
33. Deposit in public warehouse.
34. Licence contract. Lease contract. Franchise contract.

35. Bankruptcy – notion.
36. Prerequisites for institution of bankruptcy proceedings.
37. Institution of bankruptcy proceedings.
38. Effects of the court decision for institution of bankruptcy proceedings.
39. Authorities and management of bankruptcy estate.
40. Merchant's declaration of bankruptcy.
41. Effects of the court decision on declaration of bankruptcy.
42. Termination of bankruptcy proceedings. Restoration of debtor's rights.

Sofia, September 2008

Associate Professor Dr. B. Landjev